The James River Basin Partnership (JRBP) is a grassroots, not-for-profit, 501(c)3 organization formed in 1997. Our mission: to protect the water quality in our springs, streams, rivers and lakes while holding a vision of clean water for you, your children and your grandchildren. The basin's 931,112 acres exist within seven southwest counties. Chances are, it's where you live! The lakes, rivers and streams of Southwest Missouri, from the James River to Table Rock Lake, are the driving force behind our regional economy. In Branson, what began as small fishing expeditions along the shores of the White River became a multi-million dollar economy drawing millions of visitors annually, all based on the lure of clean water for outdoor recreation.
